Grading System Explained Since 2003, the university has used a four-point letter-grading system for calculating Grade Point Averages (GPA). (Grades in the nine-point grading system are retained on student records for terms that are prior to September 2003.) Grade points reflect judgements of student achievement performance in a class.

Figuring the grade. Grades aren't impossible to figure out with a good calculator or sharp pencil, but plopping percentages onto papers does take a moment or two of concentration. If your student is beyond the smiley-or-frowny-face grading method, you probably need to incorporate percentages and letter grades into his life.
