One song that fits this transcendence is La Vie En Rose, literally, Life in Pink. This was first made popular in 1946 by French torch singer Edith Piaf. Translated from the French idiom, the piece means "seeing life through rose-colored glasses," rather perfect for Piaff's life and vocal talent, and even more perfect for a world turned upside down because of World War II. La Vie en Rose 2 / 5 stars 2 out of 5 stars.

La Vie en rose | Bartleby

This is la vie en rose
When you kiss me,
Heaven sighs
And though I close my eyes.
I see la vie en rose
When you press me to your heart
I'm in a world apart
A world where roses bloom
And when you speak
Angels sing from above.
Every day words
Seem to turn into love songs
Give your heart and soul to me
And life will always be La vie en rose
